

OTHER RESPONSES to the question: “What barriers (if any) impact the ability for your daughter or girls in your troop to attend a council sponsored DAY camp?”

Multiple responses...

- Age level (2 responses)
- Heat/weather and lack of a place to cool off (2 responses)
- I don't know/unsure (2 responses)
- Lack of adult volunteers (4 responses)
- Lack of girl interest (6 responses)
- Lack of options for older girls (10 responses)
- N/A (11 responses)
- Not offered by council or in my area (12 responses)
- Poor promotion of day camp/can't find out details (5 responses)
- Transportation (2 responses)
- Volunteer led day camp(s) by service unit, community, etc. (10 responses)

Single responses...

- A 5 hour bus ride???
- Accommodation for Special Needs
- Always has gone to volunteer led day camp
- Buses to transport girls to some camps are 20 minutes away.
- Can't have day camp when the camp is closed
- Canceling too many and they are too far away also cost should be for that camps budget and not one set fee. We can run at lower cost budget in low income area but fee is still same and girls do not go because too high
- Cost for gas
- Council doesn't host per se, the Service Units do the day camps. This summer three camps in our immediate area were cancelled due to the lack of adult volunteers to run the camps.
- Even if you are volunteering you as the volunteer or program aide are expected to pay $30 to $40 to volunteer your time to work at the greater Atlanta day camps in Forsyth county at Camp Lanier
- Have not taken PA training
- It's a short season/time frame
- Job schedule
- Limited weeks offered

- Mixed age groups
- My daughter are aid staff
- My daughters just don't like day camp - prefer resident camp
- New scouts only
- No camp facilities
- No longer able to spend the night every day of camp
- Not a full service program ... working parents need to book the entire summer, not a few weeks at GS camp
- Only offered locally for Brownies, put on by volunteers
- Only offered to girls in metro Seattle area
- Our day "camp" is held in a city? Seriously?? It's not at a camp
- Our troops camps a lot and they have to plan their camp dates months in advance and sadly are often troop camping during the local day camp.
- Registration process is very challenging.
- She can only go two weeks because transportation changes each week for bus stop pick up
- Small, not run well
- Someone from troop has to work day camp
- The girl leadership isn't a sister to every scout
- The only transportation offered is in the center of the county and not easily accessed with my work schedule.
- There was only one when she was that age
- There were only two day camps offered, both outside of the dates that we could attend.
- They are all in Cincinnati not in Toledo
- They closed our day camp last summer
- Time - day camp is 9 to 3 so if you work this is difficult.
- Time of day--twilight camp
- Use to offer day camps but not any longer cost and council demands stopped most of the day camps
- Usually during Summer School
- Wheelchair access issues
- Year round school

Responses are presented "as is". They have not been edited for spelling or grammar.