- $500+
- $600 for the weekend, don't know about day price.
- $800
- Almost $900
- 1000
- $1,200
- 1700 for a weekend!
- $2000 per weekend
- $10 - 165 for Day camp
- $175 to $375 depending on campsite
- $200 range unless it is a camporee then obviously more
- $300 for two nights, 26 people plus $21 per person for food service, no option to cook on our own
- $400 or more unless we are doing Girl Scout program - journey, badge
- 10.00/pp (weekend 2 nights)
- $12/ person plus fees
- $45-135 per person for weekend
- $50 per girl
- Between $125-$600 depending on whether it is a rested camp or not. Our local camp would cost $300

- Current rate for troop houses, no discount
- Depends on event; some require a per-person charge and others are group rental for essentially the entire camp, perhaps minus a unit.
- Depends on the camp $175 to $375
- Depends on the camp. The largest camp is between $300 - $400. A smaller camp is $175.
- Depends on the size - over $300 is typical
- Free unless overnight. Then $50
- Girls Astronomy Events- Zero
- If it is open to the entire council it is free, If for SU event close to $1000 for the camp
- It is a big camp that sleeps 500!
- Our Camporee this fall will cost $800 for 150 people to stay two nights, just for cabin rentals
- Troops pay their own we rent main building for first level above.
- We are given discounts if registration numbers are met by a certain date in Sept/Oct
- We pay by the unit, but it's never under $600 for our SU
- We pay by unit ($300-$500 per unit that house 25-40 persons)
- We pay the $120 per site needed which accommodates 20 per site.
