- Provide our own activities and/or instructors, facilitators, etc. (6 responses)
- Varies depending on attendance, availability, activities, etc. (10 responses)

Single responses...

- $10 plus SU Cookie funds
- $15. per girl
- $5 per person per activity for simple activities like swimming, more for high ropes - highway robbery!
- Ala carte based on # girls attending
- Always extra
- Around $800
- Camp not available
- Choose not to have alternative events to expensive
- Current rate, no discount
- I'm not sure. Troops pay fees per girl to SU of $6 to $15 per activity.
- not in the budget
- Nothing as long as you have a certified adult to lead the activities.
- Our ambassador troop creates and leads all activities for the girls attending camp
- Per person fees per activity
- The cost is per girl...only thing that was offered was animal programs and it varied $8-$40 per scout
- Unknown, but we do have to pay for lifeguards, etc.
- Varies by event. We are not charged extra for equipment use, but have to find qualified people with training (which we may have to pay for).
- Varies depending on type of rental. If rental charge is per capita, that includes equipment rental (archery, canoes) and lifeguards.

- We don't have a large enough service unit to afford a service unit weekend. The costs would be about $1 less than the usual per girl charges for troop camping
- We don't usually do things where we need to bring in outside, paid assistance
- We have rented equipment from other venues
- We have to find our own lifeguards, which is challenging because the list is short.
- We pay for use of the pool but our lifeguard and watchers are volunteers
- We try to get trained/certified volunteers. If that is not possible $100-$200
