Single responses...

- 2-3 more up for sale soon
- At least parts
- Everything is on the table
- Have and I believe in the process of
- I believe so, but they won't admit it.
- I believe we will "hunker down" and try to keep what we have; however, our council finances are bad and unless we reverse recent membership declines, we will eventually have to release properties.
- I hope not. We have sold too many and now have to
- I hope they sell no more than they already did
- I'm sure they will - that seems to be the general direction of Girl Scouting.
- I've only heard rumors but not sure.
- It appears they are wanting to sell Camp Kitty which is awful. I attended Camp Kitty as a child and want it for my daughter and my grand kids!
- Just did 1
- Just sold 2 properties
- Just sold in last 3 years
- None to sell
- Not an actual camp, but an adjacent property to camp that hasn't been used in years.
- Not sure what they will do with it. They said it is on hold for now.
- Our council has already closed and sold most of our camps.
- Rumors say yes, CEO denies it
- Selling/Sold 3 recently
- Sold 2 beautiful awesome camps!!!!!!
- That is on the table right now
- The recent properties were timbered and developed. This does not sound like the GS Pledge I was raised with- "Protect the world around me"

- They considered it, but I sure hope not!
- They don't communicate with the leaders.
- They have already sold all but 2 and they are gonna make those into 5 star hotel camps so sad
- They keep talking about it b/c they want MONEY.
- They keep trying to, secretly!
- They will be closing on 2 camps in the coming month
- To divest under or unutilized pieces..yes
- We just sold a bunch of them
- We just sold two in areas where there are multiple properties and both were not highly used.
- We pray not!!!
- Western has sold 2 camps
