- According to the girls " nothing fun"
- Arts
- August Learning Events focuses on training Adult Leaders and Crafts. There is outdoor cooking at times.
- Barbie what a girl can do event
- Blow up bubble time, has other groups come in and give out information
- Carpentry
- Cave Overnight
- Council has just idled the camp that has horses and a lake.

- Council itself doesn't offer many events; money earning groups do offer some events, which vary greatly in how well they are organized/run.
- Crafts, campfire, need to offer more
- Events tying outdoor skills and GSLE into popular themes - such as Hogwarts or Divergent
- Except for a Halloween event, activities are mostly summer camp for girls. There is an adult weekend in Fall and some Bols trainings for adults
- Fishing
- High Adventure, but run by volunteers
- History
- I believe they offer twilight camp at silver meadows in addition to the one other outdoor event for the hiking badge we attended there.
- I truly dislike our council and its lack of interest in the girls' interests. They only care about climbing the ladder
- In the past we had some fantastic outdoor programs available (STEM and Skills) but they have not been offered for a couple years.
- Jamboree camp out, girl Olympics for Live Healthy Lead Healthy campaign
- Just Camp Adventure
- Just for fun of being outdoors
- Kickstart camp
- Most events are NOT outdoors events that GSGLA sponsors. We have Mall Madness instead of outdoor activities, sadly! We have movies premiers instead of nature led events, unfortunately!
- Mostly crafts at camp/no real skills taught or badges earned
- Mostly indoors sitting in cabins
- No resident camp for 2015, say there are plans for more day camp and 2-3 day outdoor effects including more higher adventure tour events.
- Non-nature based STEM
- Not many for older girls
- Not much. Just an occasional event. Nothing routine
- Occasional camping/ sleepover events. No day events.
- Open house intro weekends
- Other programs used to be offered as well, but have been discontinued
- Our camps are actually held at a property owned by the Boy Scouts.
- Outdoor survival skills
- Overnight camping
- Overnight Camping in the Summer
- Reach for the Peak
- Recruitment

- Sampler type program (multiple options to choose from and rotate through)
- Simple games and activities
- Special events
- Spring and Fall Adventure Camps
- Tambu
- The council has closed 3 camps in the last 10 years.
- The Council only sponsors one or two Council wide outdoor activities per year
- The Sky High property had fantastic events but lost campers when the Denver group raised the prices. Then they scrapped the programs to make it troop camping only. I personally prefer a camp where I just show up with my girls and the program is designed by somebody else because there isn't any time to plan a camp and get parents to help girls prepare for troop camping at home.
- Troop Round Up
- very limited...only a few and now it will be even less
- We have done STEM based nature events, general outdoor skill events and family events but not at council owned properties
- Week long camps
- Winter weekend camp (one time during yr)
- Winterfest
